Ms. Lamendola:

I am sending out the Holbrooke and Bruce obits that you requested in the mail. I could not find one for Bessie Lee Bruce with the death date of 1/10/1964 or for Joseph E. Holbrooke who died about 1908-1910. There is an entry in the index for Mrs. J. M. (Alston) Holbrooke with the same death date, 2/19/1914, but it is actually a death certificate in the LA State Archives.

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File:

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will be published and packaged with that set of discs. With the publication of every 25 discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that volume of discs. Discs may be purchased as sets or volumes.

Please Note:

Submitter information is provided to help in the coordination of personal family history research. Use of this information for any other purpose, including marketing, advertising, or commercial solicitation, is strictly prohibited.

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File:

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that set of discs. Discs may be purchased individually or as sets.

Please Note:

Submitter information is provided to help in the coordination of personal family history research. Use of this information for any other purpose, including marketing, advertising, or commercial solicitation, is strictly prohibited.

Re: Robert Jefferson Holbrook, 1840 census

Gentlemen:

I have heard that my ancestor, Robert Jefferson Holbrook, settled for two or three years in Jackson County, shortly after being married in Sumner Co., Tenn. In 1838. He would be listed, I am certain, in your 1840 census if my information is correct.

His bride was Mary Elizabeth Rutherford, granddaughter of famed Gen. Griffith Rutherford who organized the State of Tennessee and was its first governor. Her father was John Rutherford, son of the general.

Family tradition says the newlyweds started for Texas, but for some reason (possibly bad weather or roads) stepped off for several years in Jackson County.

I would be happy to pay any research or copy charges for the record of his family in your 1840 census. By 1850, they were actually in Texas. I am enclosing a partial family group sheet to assist in identifying him.

With kindest regards,

John Holman

Dear Vickie

I am sorry to be so late answering your nice letter. I had fallen and hurt my hip, thank the Lord it wasn't broken - the Dr. put a shot of cortisone and it helped, but have been walking around with a cane - my sister Ann also fell but she didn't get out as well as I did - She has a cracked Pelvis (the Dr. said there is nothing to do for that but bed rest & pain pills) she has been a widow for 27 years, one daughter who lives in Weatherford, TX. It looks like we 3 girls are falling apart -

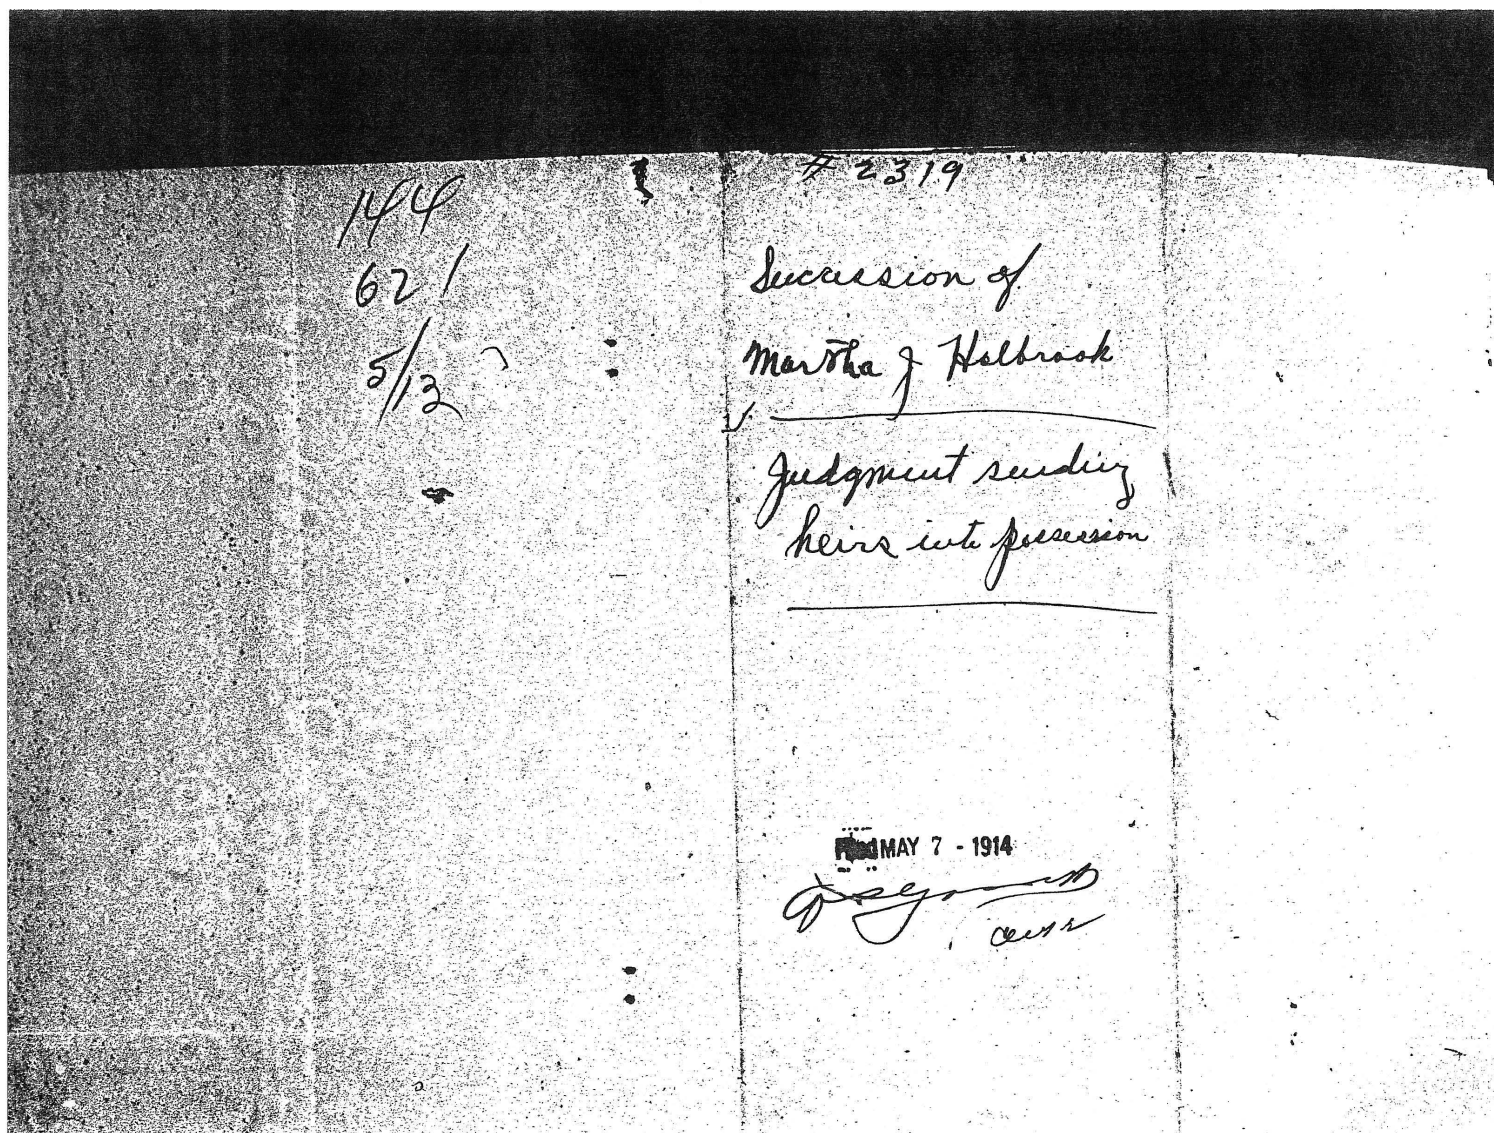

I finally managed to look over my charts and the only thing I have is my great grandfathers chart, and my grandfathers - the first one was George Williams & Mally Holbrooke -

As soon as I can I plan on getting back to the Library (we have a great one) and see if I can find anything - so far I am the only one in the family doing any work - the others all want me to keep up but they don't want to - Ann is just at putting things together but she is out of it, at least for awhile -

I will keep your letter and if I ever come across anything will let you know

Sincerely

Elaine Lancaster

George Storter was born in Strassbourg, Alsace -Lorraine in 1829.

He came to New Orleans with his parents and several Brothers at about age (9) years old. This would have been around 1838.

His Parents both died about 2 months later with Yellow Fever. George said only one Brother and himself survived.

George was taken by Judge Geneot to raise and his Brother was taken to live with a wealthy family as well. Judge Geneot served the city of New Orleans as Clerk of the Court before becoming a Judge. I did find both Joseph Geneot and his (possibly) a Brother who became the Mayor for awhile. He fought in the War between the States at Shiloh and was in the 2nd Ala. Cavalry.

George was trained to be a tin Smith. He also said that due to his small size he was a Tockey for a time before going on to Alabama. He had a building at the corner of Washington and Strawberry Sts. in Demopolis, Ala. He married Betty Harriette Elizabeth Holbrook and in the 1860 census they owned a hotel and there 13 men listed as living at their address.

In the 1880 census we find George and two of his sons in South Fla. George Jr. is listed as being 17 years old and Bembry (Robert B.) as being 14 years old.

I have had at least two genealogists work on this problem for me. James C. Armistead got me the most records but he died before I could complete my search. I got a woman in New Orleans to try and find some record showing that George W. Storter Sr. lived with the Geneots. She found exactly the same records that I had found for myself while working in the New Orleans Library. The records are on Microfilm and were cataloged by the Mormons. Some of the indenture papers are so faint that they can't be read. Something tells me that George might have been related to the Judge. Why would a clerk of the court used to binding out children to families for years suddenly take a child into his ^{own} home? George spoke French right up until he died. He and my Grandmother (Mrs George Storter Jr) used to order roses from Brussels and he grew a garden, growing the first Carrots and Lettuce that my Mother said she had eaten.

Dr. Grampa told that he had seen Louis Napoleon Bonaparte ^{Nov. 11} riding on a white charger in the Streets of Strasbourg while he lived there -

Peter Sauviac for himself and as agent for Jules Sandoz to Dr. E. B. Perrin the north half of Lot 583 being the property of Jules Sandoz and Peter Sauviac for 8 bales of cotton of 500# delivered to Bush, Greer and Bogle in Mobile clear of all expense. -Oct 5, 1865

(Jules and Gustave Sandez bought from Augustine Schmidt north half lot 583 for $ 200, 18 April 1855. The Sandoz people lived at Mobile. May have lived for awhile in Demopolis.)

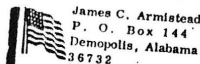

(The lots in Demopolis extend in a depth of 150 ft east and west with widths of 75 ft. north and south. Businesses on Washington Street usually face that street extending across two lots or crosswise the original plan. On lot 583 once stood the Cheshire-Webb building that burned about 1913. Then the Sinon Theater, Lido Theater, a dance hall, cafe, a hotdog stand, A & P. Presently Fred's Store is there with a parking lot to the east next to the alley.)

There is no Holbrook will in DAR Index of Ala. Wills 1808-1870.
There may be a reference to William Holbrook in the Probate Court records of Tuscaloosa or Greene Counties, Ala.

It is possible that Burwell Holbrook was a relative. He lived for a time about 20 miles south of Tuscaloosa in Greene County until he moved to Mississippi.

Re: Robert Jefferson Holbrook, 1840 census

Gentlemen:

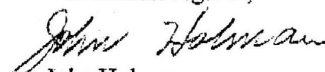

I have heard that my ancestor, Robert Jefferson Holbrook, settled for two or three years in Jackson County, shortly after being married in Sumner Co., Tenn. In 1838. He would be listed, I am certain, in your 1840 census if my information is correct.

His bride was Mary Elizabeth Rutherford, granddaughter of famed Gen. Griffith Rutherford who organized the State of Tennessee and was its first governor. Her father was John Rutherford, son of the general.

Family tradition says the newlyweds started for Texas, but for some reason (possibly bad weather or roads) stopped off for several years in Jackson County.

I would be happy to pay any research or copy charges for the record of his family in your 1840 census. By 1850, they were actually in Texas. I am enclosing a partial family group sheet to assist in identifying him.

With kindest regards,

John Holman

PASCAGOULA LIBRARY
GENEALOGY COLLECTION
DO NOT CIRCULATE

Dear Mrs. Hughes:

RE: COLLINS, STEINWINDER Research

The Archives in Montgomery returned the microfilm copies of the old newspapers they had been refilming, to the University of Alabama Main Library on Monday of this week.

I have today scanned closely, all issues as found on the film:

Z35 Eu8	EUTAW WHIG & OBSERVER	1840 - 1879
Z35 Eu8	EUTAW WHIG AND PUBLIC ADVERTISER	1842 -1879

I am sorry to have to report that I found no obituaries for either James Collins, Sr., or Jefferson Steinwinder, or for Martha S. S. Collins. First of all, the rolls of film do not contain a complete issue for each week, etc., but however the issues skip as much as a year sometime. They simply have just filmed what there does or did exist at the time of filming, to preserve these issues.

There were very few Obituaries found at all, maybe a dozen total on both reels of film. These that were found are not by any means written as an Obit would be today. No list of survivors by name, etc.; only mentioning the father of a child who died, or maybe a loving sister that survived.

While awaiting the film to be sent back, I did a little research on my own, with records in books we have here, and was able to find out a more definite date of death of James Collins, Sr. Mrs. Gandrud, in Alabama Records, Vol. 27, of Greene Co., page 12, has abstracted James Collins, Sr.'s will. The will was dated 17 June 1836, probated 14 November 1836. So, he died between these dates. Have you gone or had someone to follow this estate through the probate court records, to see just who how and who received what, etc?

I found no mention of Martha S. S. Collins or Jefferson Steinwinder, in all the books that Mrs. Gandrud did, except these entries in Greene Co. Marriages:

B-112	Jefferson Steinwinder m. Miss Sarah Wilson	28 April 1835
C-259	Thomas G. Ryan m. Miss Louisa Stivender	3 October 1858

In book Old Demopolis Land Office Records by Barefield:

Jefferson Steinwinder purchased land in S31 T22 R5E, Greene Co., on 2-10-1836

I am sorry that the research proved to be fruitless as to not finding what you needed. If I can ever help further in the future, just let me know.

Sincerely,
Maggie H. Sudduth

P.S. Almost forgot to mention and enclose these pages from Vol. 87, ALABAMA RECORDS, where James Collins gave "deeds of gifts" to his children, etc. (pp. 19, 22, 23)

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union has severed its diplomatic relations with Australia because of that country's refusal to hand back its fugitive envoy in Canberra, Vladimir Petrov, as an embezzler and swindler.

In a note handed yesterday to Australian Charge d'Affaires Brian Hill in Moscow, the Russians accused Australia's government of a "large-scale campaign of slander" in its allegations that Petrov fled his post as third secretary in the Soviet Embassy at Canberra and handed over a mass of documents said to have exposed a Communist spy ring.

It demanded that Hill, top-ranking Australian envoy to the Kremlin, leave with the five-member embassy staff immediately. Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko told Hill the Russians wanted the staff moved out in two

Duggan died on the eve of the scheduled appearance before a spy-hunting federal grand jury of Francis B. Sayre, former assistant secretary of state, whose office secrets allegedly were filched according to testimony in another phase of the inquiry.

At the time of his death, Duggan was president of the Institute of International Education. The institute, devoted to promoting international understanding and the exchange of students among various nations, was founded with aid from the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

The president of the Carnegie Foundation, Alger Hiss—also a former state department official was indicted on perjury charges recently on the ground that he lied when he denied before a federal grand jury that he passed out government secrets to ex-Communist Courier Whitaker Chambers.

Advisor to Hull
Mundt said Duggan, who was an advisor to former Secretary of State Cordell Hull, was named by Isaac Don Levine, editor of the anti-Communist magazine Plain Talk, in testimony on Dec. 8.

In a partial transcript of Le-vine's testimony, released by Mundt, the witness said Chambers had told former Assistant Secretary of State Adolf A. Berle, Jr., that Duggan was one of six persons in the state department who allegedly had funneled out confidential information at various times.

Man Convicted Of Con Game Gets 8 Years

One of three men charged with the confidence game theft of $400 from an 87-year-old Lake Charles man drew an eight-year penitentiary sentence when he pleaded guilty yesterday afternoon in Calcasieu district court.

Judge G. W. Swift Jr. handed down the sentence to Claude White, 60, of Jacksonville Fla. Two others, William Otis Brown, 26, of Birmingham, Ala., and Horace Leonard Stokes 30, of Kansas City, Kan. pleaded not guilty to the same charge.

All three were accused of stealing the $400 from William Wellings, 87, of 2305 South Hodges street December 21 in a swindle that police call "pigeon dropping."

Mike Hogan, city police chief of detectives, who was instrumental in the arrest of the trio said they bilked Wellings of his money by posing as gamblers and telling him if he would give them his money they would let him hold theirs. They were supposed to return with Wellings' and their profits. But the "money" given the local man was only a road map and a cough drop box stuffed into an envelope, police said.

Officers in Orange, Texas, arrested the trio from a description given by local police.

Harry James Armstrong, 27, of 321 South Bank street, pleaded guilty to charges of possession of barbiturates and drew a two-year sentence to the Calcasieu parish jail.

Plan ma teacher

BATON ROUGE (AP) — T stop a serious teacher shortage from becoming worse, th deans of Louisiana's colleges c education have proposed a wa to allow college graduates i any field to become teachers i they go back to school for tw summers.

The plan, if approved by th Board of Elementary and Sec ondary Education, would allow qualified applicants to ski many courses that educatio students must take to earn thei teaching degrees.

The change could start "a substantial movement toward attracting more people into th teaching profession," according to Robert T. Alciatore, dean o the college of education at th University of Southwestern Louisiana.

"People can be trained quickl; to adapt to teaching," said Alciatore, chairman of th Louisiana Council of Deans o Education.

A large pool of potentially good teachers is available, he told the board's teacher certification committee in a recent presentation.

The committee endorsed the idea in principle, but held off further action until more details can be worked out over the coming months.

Recent statistics document a teacher shortage in Louisiana that most observers say is going to get worse.

About 1,000 uncertified teachers are working in public school classrooms because local school officials cannot find certified
